TUESDAY EVENING, JULY 2, 1912.

TWO DISTURBERS.

The seventh day of the Democratic National Convention opens with its settlement of the deadlock in sight. At the adjournment of the sixth day's proceedings forty-two ballots had been taken during which Clark had fallen to 122 and Wilson had risen to 204, but on the third day ballots were evenly divided between the two, indicating that the great tide of Wilson movement had been reached and passed.

Various remedies are suggested for the situation. Some of the disgruntled and angry delegates want to hold the convention in a body leaving it powerless to make a nomination. The proposition is unpopular, not Democratic, besides the remainder of the convention, if a majority, might assume a somewhat more proper role and such a procedure would not be ratified by the rank and file of the Democracy who are almost as true to the party as the delegates. The Democratic Disfranchisement of the United States and the Democratic Disfranchisement of the United States are the two main points of contention. The Democratic Disfranchisement of the United States is the one which is the most important. The Democratic Disfranchisement of the United States is the one which is the most important.

There is, of course, the danger of making up and making that this is only a party device, but after sixteen years the Democrats are getting accustomed to such a device. However, it will require more than a vision to unite the Democratic factions. Party glory will not lead to such a vision. I have known Champ Clark for years. He is absolutely incorruptible. He is the only man who has been in all these years who has known him to be all upon one side of any question and that was the side that represented the people.

The Democratic Disfranchisement of the United States is the one which is the most important. The Democratic Disfranchisement of the United States is the one which is the most important.

Whenever may be the verdict of the Democratic Disfranchisement of the United States is the one which is the most important. The Democratic Disfranchisement of the United States is the one which is the most important.

Charles E. Franks to remark that Editor John L. Keller of the Uniontown Courier, is in the convention on somebody's proxy," says the News. A number of other people were confident that Bryan was voting for himself.

It is proposed in Congress to investigate the Taft and Tully campaign. The same committee might look into the manner of conducting the Baltimore Convention and take a census of the Money Devils found lurking in and around there.

Burgess Evans has vetoed the gay and festive Carnival. The town can get along very well without it.

The School Board had better chop out the Man from Bad Ax.

Runaway accidents are getting fewer possibly because horses are getting scarce with the growth of the horseless vehicles.

Billboards are common to the Canadian winter, but tornadoes are strange to summer weather. However, this is a record year in weather and in politics.

German coal operators have abolished the 55.7 cents bounty on coal used for the manufacture of export iron because of the fact that recent strikes in that country and in England have sensibly increased the price of coal. It would be interesting to know why the German coal bounty was ever established. The only conceivable explanation would be that the coal interests were dominated by the iron interests.

Connellsville has been frost-swept enough without burning her water mains.

Runaway pit cars are more deadly than runaway horses.

The Hobb's coke-drawing machine will be "chop" if the stockholders of the company don't quit laying about it.

The conduct of the race is so exemplary that the members of the Rules Committee are thinking of taking a vacation.

Philip Monchuckowitch of the Century color works has been shot and seriously wounded in a party affair. Perhaps after all there's something in a name.

The first precaution in cleaning a revolver is to empty the cartridges from it. Failure to do this has caused as many fatal accidents as the old didn't know-it was loaded idea.

Charcoal burners still have their uses.

Democratically and completely successfully with Michigan coal on the latter's ground. This is probably because the Democrats are low and Democratic coal is high in quality.

Night's Meeting.

NO PLACE TO PUT THE STUFF

Town Has a Fund to Build a Furnace, But Subject Is a Delicate One, and in Meantime Garbage Accumulates and Keeps—Mrs. Too Well.

SCOTSDALE, July 2.—Like Bacon's ghost, the garbage question arose in all its horrors to first Town Council in their meeting last night.
As the shades of night grew deeper and human energies waned, the garbage question smothered into the room at 10:30, and for half an hour held the stage of action. It was prodded forward by Health Officer E. P. Gibson and it required the united efforts of the 14 councilmen present and the Borough Attorney, T. B. Feltz, to drive it back to its inconspicuous place. The people have been making an outcry against garbage conditions, and in midsummer the members of the Board of Health that the citizens shall keep the town pure and spotless, that there be no place to dump the refuse. The point people will take, but this far the garbage committee has found no place for the stuff, and it certainly keeps coming, well known to it. There is $4,000 in the borough treasury to build a garbage furnace, but every time anyone suggests a place that the furnace may be built, the citizens of that locality start a re-monstration. Mention the question will be given more careful scrutiny.

The fourth of July was spoken of in town, as one of the town's best known and most respected young men, Jesse M. Broad, is lying in his home on Market street, in a critical condition from a long illness. To add to this was his fear that the patriotic rocket on the fourth night, prove too much for his tired and worn body, and it was requested that some action be taken to reduce this danger. There are other people who are ill in town, too, who die of the day. The council was of opinion of Eugene H. P. Hill and the Council was that efforts be made to prevent the exploding of firecrackers and such agents on Market street. An appeal will be made to the humanity of celebrators throughout the town to keep their firecrackers on their street from breakfast to breakfast.

Another matter that seems a real brother to the garbage question arose from numerous complaints about the frequently filthy condition of Pittsburg street, said to be due to merchants sweeping their store refuse into the street. It was suggested that a sewer trench be laid along the line of the street, through which refuse could be carried. The Police department was instructed to look after this matter, although they offered to excavate that sewer could be laid upon the violation of the ordinance. The Garbage Kitchen and the Grease Tank, as called, at Market and Broadways, were also mentioned with sharp complaint over these places dumping refuse on the sidewalk, and as instances it was given by Councilmen that on Saturday night when autos and motor cycles were rushing over the street, the crowd about these outdoor stoves compelled women and children to leave the sidewalk and go in the street to get past these stoves. This is a thing which is a real danger.
The police were instructed to see that the ordinance allowing only 14 inches space from the side of the building be used for disposing refuse. Something which has been said of the public health and the danger to establish this rule in the open.

H. J. Springer, who succeeded John M. Cyle, was welcomed to the Council at this meeting. Mr. Springer took Mr. Cyle's place as second member of the Sewer Committee, and also member of the Public Safety and Police Committee and Chairman of the Public Buildings and Grounds Committee.

E. B. Gibson, of Scottdale, was elected Borough Engineer to fill out the unexpired term of James B. Hout, whose death occurred recently. Mr.
Gibson has been doing the major engineering work for the borough for a year or more. All the members were present except J. P. Hout.

o'clock. In the afternoon at 2 o'clock at Ellsworth park, Scottdale, on the Fourth, the first game being the Flippers Collegians, a young Pittsburg team. The Scottdale baseball association expects this to be one of the very best contests they have known in the morning game will be at 10:30, and the second game at 2 o'clock.

From all over the home town will have to go on to beat the visitors, and are going to have home run in the morning game and home run in the afternoon game.

ing last evening. The Burgess check for $13.40 was received. Lewis Shupe was present and spoke for a number of people along North Diamond street, who wished to know why their assessment were so high. Borough Solicitor Warden explained to citizens that before they had operated on a different Act of the Legislature from the 1911 Act, under which the notices were issued. The 1911 Act calls for a 30-day notice and that a lien be filed within six months after serving the notice.

The bills for laying sidewalks on North Diamond street was given to the Solicitor and Secretary to be reported on at the next meeting. A bill from L. B. Shupe for $75 damage was laid on the table. A bill for labor on the P. O. property was ordered to be paid.

The Property Committee was instructed to receive bids for repairs at the school. The Street Committee was instructed to grade Silver street, between Washington and Summit street. A motion was passed that 200 feet of water table be laid on Washington street and that a ditch be laid on the east side of the tunnel plan.

An ordinance was passed authorizing the lowering of Smithfield street between Silver and Hillman streets, and for the grading, curbing and pavement of the alley from Smith Church street to Park street.

AMERICAN TEACHERS MAY ELECT ANOTHER WOMAN PRESIDENT

WHEN a woman is mentioned for the presidency of an association that is one of the greatest and most influential in America it follows as an obvious conclusion that she is not an ordinary woman. Such is the case of Miss Grace Charlotte Strachan, school official of New York, whose name has been brought forward prominently as that of a candidate for the presidency of the National Educational Association.

Miss Strachan, who is now in the city, recently that she was an applicant for the office, but her admirers asserted that they would support her. She has earned national wide recognition, they said for her work in behalf of the women teachers of New York city.

The association will meet in annual convention in Chicago July 6 to 12. The members will discuss educational problems which have arisen in the past twelvemonth, and they will signify their appreciation of the work of some of their leaders by electing them to office. There is an unwritten law of the association which forbids the reelection of the president, so Carroll O. Pease, superintendent of schools of Milwaukee, Wis., will vacate his place at the head of the country's school masters and mistresses. It may be that he will live in the annals of the association as the president who succeeded a woman. The first woman president of the association was Mrs. J. H. G. Briggs, who was succeeded by another, Miss Strachan.

Two circumstances are dependent on the other have combined recently to bring Miss Strachan prominently before the educators and general public of the United States. The first was her carrying to a successful conclusion last year the fight, several years in the making for equal pay for equal work for women teachers of New York. As head of the in-ent through Association of Women Teachers of New York Miss Strachan fought long and hard to get relative parity and out of them for her contention that women who fill the same work as men should receive the same pay. Her air was after more salaries and discriminations, was bridled far and wide.

The second circumstance to which reference has been made was the movement for the women teachers of New York to mark their appreciation of Miss Strachan's work in their behalf by presenting to her a large sum of money. The income was to make her financially independent for life. The amount of the fund to be raised was estimated at between $100,000 and $200,000. The money was to be raised by voluntary subscription on the women teachers who have benefited by Miss Strachan's activity. The highest amount named, $200,000, is about the sum gained in one month by the women school teachers of New York through the equal pay law. At the rules of this board of education of New York to which Miss Strachan is subject of course, as she is a district superintendent of schools in Brooklyn forbid the raising of money for testimonials to any persons in the employ of the board.

Miss Strachan is a woman of distinction in person and in achievement. Tall and well built, she radiates a sense of the power and determination that have stood well by her in the fight for recognition of the women teachers' claims. She has had several years of post-graduate experience in planning her teaching career in Buffalo, where she was born. She is of Scotch-Irish ancestry. She won her place as a teacher in the public schools of Brooklyn by standing highest in a list of 300 candidates after a severe competitive examination. Since 1900 she has held the responsible position of district superintendent after having served as public school teacher, member of the faculty of the training school for teachers, principal of a public school teacher in and principal of an evening high school.

The convention of the National Educational Association in Chicago will be the first in the history of the organization. WALTON WILLIAMS.

SAVED FROM AN OPERATION

How Mrs. Reed of Peoria, Ill., Escaped The Surgeon's Knife.

Peoria, Ill. — "I wish to let every one know what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. For many years I suffered. The doctor said I had a tumor and the only remedy was the surgeon's knife. My mother bought me Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and today I am a well and healthy woman. For months I suffered from inflammation and your Sarsaparilla Wash relieved me. I am glad to tell anyone what your medicines have done for me. You can use my testimonial in any way you wish, and I will be glad to answer letters." — Mrs. CHRISTINA R. LIND, 105 Mound St., Peoria, Ill.

Mrs. Lynch Also Avoided Operation.
Jessup, Pa. — "After the birth of my fourth child I had severe organic inflammation. I would have such terrible pains that it did not seem as though I could stand it. This kept up for three long months until two doctors decided that an operation was needed."

"Then one of my friends recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and after taking it for two months I was a well woman." — Mrs. JOSEPH A. LYNCH, Jessup, Pa.

Women who suffer from female ills should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, one of the most successful remedies the world has ever known, before submitting to a surgical operation.

To All Patriots.

BEFORE the butcher sends in his bill again the Chicago nominee for the Presidency will be known to the public.

If you have bet on Smith or Jones or Brown you have lost. It may be a man who dotes on the 27 different kinds of breakfast foods, or who has no use for any of them. He may think the tariff ought to be revised upwards, downward, crossways or any other old way or not at all.

He may give business a boost or a kick.

He may be again tipping waiters or he may encourage us to hand over twice the price of the meal.

He may be for breaking the neck of every kicking cow in the country or he may encourage them to kick with both hind legs at once.

He may favor pensions to all widows who haven't married over three times or he may say they can hustle around a fourth.

He may favor Sunday baseball and prove it should be a part of our religion or he may go dead back on the whole thing.

He may use his high station to abolish the scap shovel hat and the hobble skirt, or he may encourage them to remain in our midst and play the fool for the female sex.

Fellow patriots, will the Chicago nominee eat his green corn off the cob?

Will he lift up the leg of a fried chicken and gnaw it?

meeting of the Women's Foreign Mission Society of the Methodist Episcopal church will be held at the home of Mrs. Robert Welsh. The committee is composed of Mrs. Robert Welsh.

Will he patronize the moving picture shows?

Will he bet on the ponies?

Will he hoe corn instead of playing golf?

Will he—? But think well before you decide. The country must be saved. Is he the man to save it or plunge it into an abyss as broad and deep as that it will be time lost to him for anybody's coat tail?
